WORDS IN THE WILD

Free on admission *

An Education Officer will read Possum Magic by Mem Fox. Children will use emerging understandings to predict and make meanings from this text. Children will also have the opportunity to meet a few animals from the story; including Hush!

Or Educational Pat and Chat Session

Free on admission *

This 30- 45 minute session taught by an education officer, uses different animals to teach various topics, including Adaptations, Food Webs, Endangered Species and Conservation. Education sessions can be tailored to your curriculum requirements, please indicate topic needs on your booking form

Behind The Scenes- Add $6.00 per person

Visit our food preparation area and see what we feed our animals, visit our new Wildlife Hospital and have a close encounter with one of our wildlife success stories (subject to availability).

Threatened Species Treasure Trail - Add $3.50pp Students learn about Australian threatened and endangered wildlife housed at CWS. Groups are given their first clue which engages them in a series of clues that leads them around the threatened wildlife enclosures in the park. Along the way students learn about threats to native wildlife and how we are making a difference.

Highly Recommended additional activities (subject to availability)

Kangaroo Food

Add $ 2.00 per person
